

BYLAWS OF THE VIRGINIA BEACH RETIRED EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE 1 - NAME AND MISSION

1.1 Name

The name of the organization shall be the Virginia Beach Retired Employees Association, hereafter called the "Association".

1.2 Mission

The mission of the Association is to enhance the quality of life for its members. The Association organizes activities of special interest to retirees, establishes and maintains a liaison with appropriate City staff to assure retiree interests are being recognized, and provides a channel of communication through which those interests and concerns can be represented to City administration.

ARTICLE 2 – MEMBERSHIP

2.1 Regular Members

Any retired employee of the City of Virginia Beach, or any person who worked as a state employee under the Virginia Retirement System and whose service as such was to the citizens of the City of Virginia Beach, is eligible to become a voting member of the Association by paying the designated dues.

2.2 Honorary Members

The Board of Directors reserves the right to grant honorary member status to a person who has made significant contributions to the Association. The action shall be approved by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors. Honorary members are not required to pay dues, and are granted all rights and privileges of regular Association members with the exception of voting rights.

2.3 Dues

Annual dues, as determined by the Board of Directors, will be assessed on January 1 and are due upon notice. Those members who are over a year in arrears shall be sent a notice on March 1 and given until June 1 to reconcile their account. Those members still in arrears at that point shall be dropped from the organization. Any member who has not paid for the current or previous year by March 31 shall not be eligible to vote for board members or any other matters that may be addressed at Association meetings and shall not be eligible for any benefits of the Association. Initial dues are payable at time of application for membership.

2.4 Voting Rights and Responsibilities

Voting membership shall have the following rights and responsibilities:

- a. Each voting member shall be entitled to vote for directors and officers of the Association. Such election shall be accomplished at the annual meeting.
- b. Each voting member shall be entitled to make policy proposals to further the interests and purposes of the Association by written petition to the Board of Directors.
- c. Each voting member shall have the right to call for a special meeting of members by written petition to the Board of Directors with the reason for the special meeting and signed endorsements of twenty eligible voting members.
- d. Each voting member shall have access to the business records of the Association as deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors upon written request to the President.

ARTICLE 3 – MEETINGS

Annual Meeting

The annual membership business meeting of the Association shall be held each November at a place, date and time designated by the Board. The agenda for the annual membership meeting shall be determined by the Board, but will include the Association annual report, a financial report from the Treasurer, and the election of new board members.

3.1 Special Meetings

The Board of Directors may schedule additional member meetings as appropriate or needed. Special meetings of the membership may also be called by any member in accordance with Section 2.4c.

3.2 Notice

Notice will be provided to the membership, in writing and/or electronically, at least two weeks prior to any Association meeting. The notice shall include the meeting agenda, date, time and location of the meeting.

3.3 Quorum

Members present at any properly announced meeting shall constitute a quorum.

3.4 Voting

At all meetings of the Association, each regular member present shall have one vote provided his or her membership dues are paid in accordance with Section 2.3.

3.5 Parliamentary Authority

The rules of procedure at meetings of the Association shall be according to Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, so far as applicable and when not inconsistent with these bylaws.

ARTICLE 4 - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

4.1 General Authority

The business of the Association shall be managed by, or be under the direction of, its Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Association and all such lawful acts as are not prohibited by statute or these bylaws.

4.2 Number and Composition

The Board of Directors shall consist of nine (9) members. Four officers: President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Five members: at-large directors.

4.3 Terms of Office

Board members shall be elected by the members each year at the annual membership business meeting. All board members shall serve a term of two years. Elections will alternate between directors at-large one year and officers the following year. Board officers and directors at-large shall serve for no more than two (2) consecutive two (2) year terms. If at the end of the second two (2) year term there are no nominees for any Board position, the current board member may continue in that position.

Directors elected at the November annual business meeting shall assume the duties of their office on January 1 of the upcoming year.

4.4 Election Procedure

- a. At the October Board of Directors meeting the Nominating Committee shall provide a written report to the Board showing a slate of nominees for the officer and/or director positions due to be filled. The Board shall then forward the slate of nominees to the membership at least two weeks prior to the annual meeting.
- b. Nominations may be made from the floor at the annual business meeting.
- c. Board officers and directors will be elected by a simple majority of the Association members present at the annual business meeting.

4.5 Board of Directors Meetings

- a. The Board of Directors shall meet at least quarterly at an agreed upon place and time as designated by the President. Notice of these meetings shall be given to each board member not less than two (2) weeks before the meeting by written or electronic communication.
- b. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President, Vice President or Secretary upon two days notice of the date, time and place of the meeting to each board member director. Two at-large directors shall also have the right to call a special meeting with the same notification requirements.

4.6 Quorum

A quorum for a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors shall consist of five board members for business to be transacted.

4.7 Duties and Responsibilities

The Board of Directors shall have the power necessary and appropriate for the management of the business and affairs of the Association. The Board shall also have the following responsibilities:

- a. To establish policy for the Association.
- b. To establish a dues structure and to collect dues and raise funds.
- c. To set a budget.
- d. To review and evaluate the discharge of officer responsibilities.
- e. To appoint and activate special and standing committees.
- f. To review membership qualifications for eligibility.
- g. To define the mission, strategic plan, and annual plan of work for the Association.
- h. To identify, recruit, recommend for election, and engage qualified board directors and officers.
- i. To assess the performance of the Association and its own performance on a regular basis.
- j. To conduct an annual financial audit.

4.8 Vacancies

In the event of a vacancy of any seat on the Board of Directors, the seat shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining board members. The individual elected to fill that vacancy will serve for the balance of the vacated term.

4.9 Resignation, Termination and Absences

- a. Resignation from the Board should be in writing and addressed to the President.
- b. A board member missing three (3) consecutive board meetings without advising the President shall be subject to removal from the Board.
- c. A board member may also be removed for other reasons, but only after having been given written notice of such removal from the President, and then only upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors. To remove a board member, a notice of scheduling a meeting for that purpose must specifically state that the meeting is being held for that purpose, including the name of that board member. The subject board member will have the right to be present at the meeting when his/her removal is being discussed and shall have the opportunity to address the board members in attendance to answer or rebut any issues raised.

4.10 City of Virginia Beach Liaison

The City of Virginia Beach leadership should appoint a person through the Administrative Leadership Team to act as communications liaison to the Board of Directors and membership of this Association.

4.11 Webmaster

The Webmaster is responsible for designing the organization's website that supports the needs of the board and membership while maintaining system and content functionality. The Webmaster is appointed by the Board of Directors and is a non-voting member of the Board.

ARTICLE 5 - OFFICERS

5.1 Officers

The Association shall have the following officers with duties and responsibilities as set forth below: President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

5.2 President

The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association, shall preside at all meetings of the members and of the Board of Directors, shall have general and active management of the business of the Association in accordance with the bylaws. and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried out.
